Save on your lab work with network lab benefits

Make sure your lab is in network

There's an easy way to save on out-of-pocket costs: getting lab work done in our network.

You can save big on lab services with your health plan. Just get your testing done at one of our two preferred national labs, Quest Diagnostics and LabCorp (effective January 1, 2019). Or choose one of the hundreds of other labs in our network. You'll pay a lot less.

See how much you can save¹

You pay a lot less when you use in-network labs. Here's an example for the Aetna HealthSave plan:

	Quest Diagnostics & LabCorp	In-network independent lab	In-network hospital lab	Out-of-network lab
Cost of lab tests*	$30	$45	$120	$300
Patient's coinsurance	10%	10%	10%	30%
Patient pays	$3	$4.50	$12	$90
Comments	Patients who have not met their deductible pay the cost of the lab test.

*These costs reflect an example of a routine lab test.

¹Aetna Strategic Contract Manager, 2018. Based on a patient whose deductible has already been met. Data is not representative of hospitals that have a separately negotiated laboratory agreement.

Two ways to save

Here's what you need to do to make sure you save — every time you need lab work:

1. Is your doctor collecting your sample in the office? Ask that it be sent to a participating lab.
2. Is your doctor sending you to a lab for the testing? Ask for a lab requisition form to a network lab. This lets you go to a lab in our network.

And it's always a good idea to call Member Services at the number on your ID card. You can check to make sure the lab is in network.

Find a network lab

Learn which labs are in network before your next doctor's visit. That way you can share the information with your doctor to save on lab costs.

And it's easy to find one:

- Go to our online provider directory at aetna.com.
- Call the Member Services number on your ID card.
