INTRODUCTION

The Group Legal Plan was established to provide personal legal services for eligible Company employees, their spouses and dependent children. This summary provides general information about the Plan, who is eligible to receive benefits under the Plan, what those benefits are, how to obtain benefits and what your rights under ERISA are. If you have any questions that are not answered, please contact the Benefits Department.

Hyatt Legal Plans, Inc. has been selected to provide for legal plan benefits. The services will be provided through a panel of carefully selected Participating Law Firms. Lawyers in this network are called Plan Attorneys. These arrangements are described in detail in this summary. The actual provisions of the Plan are set out in a written document maintained by your employer. All statements made in this booklet are subject to the provisions and terms of that document, which control in the event of conflict with this summary.

HOW TO GET LEGAL SERVICES

Web Site
To use the Plan, visit the Hyatt Legal Plans’ web site at legalplans.com. Once there, click on the “Members Log in” icon at the top of the page. You will be taken to a secure page that will require you to enter the last four digits of your Social Security Number and Zip Code. After you enter the last four digits of your Social Security Number and Zip Code you will jump to a page that is specific for member services. On this page you can choose the following options:

- How Do I Use the Plan?
- Covered Services
- Attorney Locator
- Obtain Case Number
- Life Guide
- Self-Help Documents/Forms

Client Service Center
You may also use the Hyatt Group Legal Plan, by calling Hyatt Legal Plans’ Client Service Center at 1-800-821-6400 Monday – Friday 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., Eastern Time. Be prepared to give the last four digits of your Social Security Number and Zip Code. If you are a spouse or an eligible dependent child of an eligible person, you will need the last four digits of the Social Security Number and Zip Code of the employee through whom you are eligible. The Client Service Representative who answers your call will:
- Verify your eligibility for services;
- Make an initial determination of whether and to what extent your case is covered (the Plan Attorney will make the final determination of coverage);
- Give you a Case Number which is similar to a claim number (you will need a new Case Number for each new case you have);
- Give you the telephone number of the Plan Attorney most convenient to you; and
- Answer any questions you have about the Legal Plan.

You then call the Plan Attorney to schedule an appointment at a time convenient to you. Evening and Saturday appointments are available.

If you choose, you may select your own attorney. Also, where there are no Participating Law Firms, you will be asked to select your own attorney. In both of these circumstances, Hyatt Legal Plans will reimburse you for these non-Plan attorneys’ fees in accordance with a set fee schedule.

For services to be covered, you or your eligible dependents must have obtained a Case Number, retained an attorney and the attorney must begin work on the covered legal matter while you are an eligible member of the legal plan.

WHAT SERVICES ARE COVERED

You and your eligible dependents are entitled to receive certain personal legal services. The available benefits are very comprehensive, but there are limitations and other conditions that must be met. Please take time to read the description of benefits carefully. All benefits are available to you and your spouse and dependents, who are referred to below as Participant(s), unless otherwise noted or you are enrolled in a Single or Employee Only plan.
ADVICE AND CONSULTATION

If representation is covered by the Plan, the Participant will not be charged for the Plan Attorney's services. If representation is recommended, but is not covered by the plan, the Plan Attorney will provide a written fee statement in advance. The Participant may choose whether to retain the Plan Attorney at his or her own expense, seek outside counsel, or do nothing. There are no restrictions on the number of times per year a Participant may use this service; however, for a non-covered matter, this service is not intended to provide the Participant with continuing access to a Plan Attorney in order to seek advice that would allow the Participant to undertake his or her own representation.

Your complaint will be reviewed and you will receive a response within two business days of your call.

OTHER SPECIAL RULES

In addition to the coverages and exclusions listed, there are certain rules for special situations. Please read this section carefully.

What if other coverage is available to you? If you are entitled to receive legal representation provided by any other organization such as an insurance company or a government agency, or if you are entitled to legal services under any other legal plan, coverage will not be provided under this Plan. However, if you are eligible for legal aid or Public Defender services, you will still be eligible for benefits under this Plan, so long as you meet the eligibility requirements.

What if you are involved in a legal dispute with your dependents? You may need legal help with a problem involving your spouse or your children. In some cases, both you and your child may need an attorney. If it would be improper for one attorney to represent both you and your dependent, only you will be entitled to representation by the plan attorney. Your dependent will not be covered under the Plan.

What if you are involved in a legal dispute with another employee? If you or your dependents are involved in a dispute with another eligible employee or that employee's dependents, Hyatt Legal Plans will arrange for legal representation with independent and separate counsel for both parties.

What if the court awards attorneys' fees as part of a settlement? If you are awarded attorneys' fees as part of a court settlement, the Plan must be repaid from this award to the extent that it paid the fee for your attorney.
DENIAL OF BENEFITS AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

Denials of Eligibility
Hyatt verifies eligibility using information provided by Adobe Systems, Incorporated. When you call for services, you will be advised if you are ineligible and Hyatt Legal Plans will contact Adobe Systems, Incorporated for assistance. If you are not satisfied with the final determination of eligibility, you have the right to a formal review and appeal. Send a letter within 60 days explaining why you believe you are eligible to:

Adobe Systems, Incorporated
345 Park Avenue
San Jose, CA 95110

Within 30 days, you will be provided with a written explanation.

Denials of Coverage
If you are denied coverage by Hyatt Legal Plans or by any Plan Attorney, you may appeal by sending a letter to:

Hyatt Legal Plans, Inc.
Director of Administration
Eaton Center 1111 Superior Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio 44114-2507
(For Florida plans contact Hyatt Legal Plans of Florida, Inc. at the above address.)

The Director will issue Hyatt Legal Plans' final determination within 60 days of receiving your letter. This determination will include the reasons for the denial with reference to the specific Plan provisions on which the denial is based and a description of any additional information that might cause Hyatt Legal Plans to reconsider the decision, an explanation of the review procedure and notice of the right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA.

YOUR ERISA RIGHTS

Congress enacted the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) to safeguard your interests and those of your beneficiaries under your employee benefit plans. As a participant in the Hyatt Legal Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan participants shall be entitled to:
• Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, all Plan documents, including collective bargaining agreements and copies of all documents filed by the Plan with U.S. Department of Labor; such as detailed annual reports and Plan descriptions;
• Obtain copies of all Plan documents and other Plan information upon written request to the Plan Administrator.

The Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies:
• Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report from the Plan Administrator who is required by law to furnish this to you.

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit Plan. The people who operate your Plan, called “fiduciaries” of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA. If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied in whole or in part, you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have the Plan review and consider your claim. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. If you request materials from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Administrator. If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example if it finds your claim is frivolous. If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should contact the nearest area office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory, or at 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC. 20210 or you can call the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
